

In pursuit of perfection

Welcome to Al Afzal

Al Afzal Manpower Consultants is the vision of a group of young professionals backed up with a team of experienced industry experts aiming to provide a platform to clients and candidate's thereby enabling them to reach each other for a fruitful working experience.

Combining years of recruitment experience with a portfolio of unparalleled services to our clients, we offer experienced and professional candidate's to a wide range of industry across the globe.

Using our deep understanding of the workings and intricacies of an organisational structure, we adhere to the highest standards of ethical and professional behaviour while providing cost effective HR solutions based on current trends and industrial practices keeping in mind your industry and organisational culture.

Infrastructure

Afzal Manpower Consultants is duly registered with the Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs, Government of India having Registration Certificate No. A 0315/KER/PER/1000/5/8177/2008.

Based in Cochin the commercial capital of Kerala, South India, we have our own office's in Chennai and Calicut.

Our infrastructure consists of technologically sound office's and associate centre's in all major cities of India covering deep interiors as well.

All our centre's are well connected via internet and latest technologies to enable faster transfer of information vital to the timely sourcing and placement of candidates.

Our operations are facilitated by able workforce of professionals who have wide industry knowledge and are experts in their field of work.

We also have the infrastructure and technology to access vast databases of job portals and systematically store and retrieve information of candidates.

Recruitment Procedure:

We listen to your needs:

We listen to whatever your requirements are through phone or mail but would prefer a face to face meeting with one of our advisors, who is a specialist in the relevant field, to tailor a recruitment service to your needs. We do not have a "one size fits all" policy.

Candidate Sourcing:

Candidates are professionally sourced from our extensive data base or advertisements in leading newspapers or through job portals to find the best available candidate according to your exacting needs. We ensure that we match to the relevant skills and personality required to fit your team.

Selection Process:

We then interview every candidate thoroughly also checking backgrounds and only forward the right candidate's, concentrating on quality rather than quantity.

Client interview / trade testing / selection:

Final interview's of short listed candidate's are conducted by the client as per venue's pre arranged and trade testing done if needed.

The Right Result:

Our recruitment process helps achieve the right quality of candidate's for you that can do the job, which means that it will save you wasting resources in time, money and above all helping your company to thrive, as good people are the essence of every good company.

The Conclusion:

We at Al Afzal will only offer you the best quality of service backed by our extensive experience and are always available for advice and help whenever required. After all, that's what long term business relationships are built on.
